According to the “Scope of Major Transportation Occurrence”

IV. Major highway occurrence: refers to any of the following situations involving a motor vehicle operating on a roadway:

- (I) A traffic accident involving a motor carrier vehicle or a private large passenger vehicle that results in three or more fatalities, or ten or more casualties, or fifteen or more injuries.
- (II) The death of any person caused by an explosion, fire, or leakage of toxic liquid, gas, or radioactive substance involving hazardous materials being transported by motor carriers.
- (III) Other situations that may significantly affect the lives or bodies of civilians, or properties; that happen repeatedly; that have special circumstances; or that involve emerging vehicles and affect highway transportation safety, and are found necessary to be investigated by the TTSCB.

According to “The Regulation Governing the Handling of Investigation Procedures for Major Highway Occurrence”

Article 2

The terms applied in the Regulation are defined as follows:

1. Major highway occurrences: refer to the major highway occurrences specified in the scope of the Major Transportation Occurrences prescribed in the second paragraph of Article 2 of the Act.

Article 3

After a major highway occurrence or alleged major highway occurrence arises, the competent authority of the commercial automobile business, the National Fire Agency, and the police department shall, within the time specified in Article 9 of the Act, notify the duty officer of the TTTSB promptly. In addition, the competent authority of the commercial automobile business, as well as the vehicle owner and operator under the commercial automobile business or a private large passenger vehicle shall submit a major highway occurrence report form to the TTTSB.

Article 4

The competent authority of the commercial automobile business, the National Fire Agency, the police department, and the vehicle owner and operator under the commercial automobile business or a private large passenger vehicle shall report major highway occurrences or alleged major highway occurrences in the event of the following:

1. A traffic accident involving three or more fatalities, or ten or more casualties, or fifteen or more injuries.
2. An explosion, fire, or leakage of toxic liquid, gas, or radioactive substances during transportation.
